CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

MONDAY, JANUARY 19.

Drayton Valley Chamber of Commerce will meet in the Cardium Room of the Hotel at 9:15 p.m.
Monday, Jan. 19.

On the agenda for discussion will be the proposed government park in this area and also the wayside picnic-spots under consideration by the Department of Highways.

Some time ago an Industrial Development committee was set up in the Chamber of Commerce to look into the matter of industrial development in this area. That committee will be giving a report on the matter from a brochure which has been prepared.

All Chamber of Commerce members or prospective members are urged to be present at this meeting. Time for Chamber membership renewals has come up again and the Treasurer suggests that all come prepared to renew their membership at the beginning of this year.

QUEEN CANDIDATES SELECTED FOR

4th ICE CARNIVAL.

Next week's edition of this paper will run the pictures of the four lively young ladies who have been chosen as candidates for the crown as Queen of Drayton Valley's 4th Ice Carnival to be staged at the rink in Rotary Kiddies Park
the evening of Saturday, February 7th.

The four girls chosen to represent various companies in Drayton Valley are: Gayle McManus, who is sponsored by Drayton Valley Supply Store; Darlene Campbell, who will represent Mobil Oil of Canada; Carl Parenteau, representing Pan American Petroleum Corporation, and Sharon Woods, who will represent Pembina Pipe Line Ltd.

The Ice Carnival is sponsored this year by the Boy Scout Association of Drayton Valley, who also sponsored it the first year it was staged in Drayton Valley, in 1956. Each year it has grown successively better and has attracted a larger crowd. It is one of the big annual events of Drayton Valley and deserves the support of all.

For the Boy Scout Association Art Dixon and Larry Kane are in charge of ticket distribution, Norman Swensend and Mike Burke are in charge of advertising. Anders Anderson is in charge of the program, acting as Program Chairman. Alex Grant will act as Treasurer, Jack Heyland is Group Committee Chairman and Harvey Margee is looking after ice arrangements.

The Skit Mothers Association will again have a booth selling refreshments at the rink, and as they also did last year, they will look after the performers after the ice show, serving a dinner for them in Scout Hall.

CUBS MAKE BOTTLE DRIVE.

The Cub Scouts Bottle Drive was very successful according to reports, and the Cub committee wishes to express their appreciation of all those who cooperated in saving their bottles for the boys.

Money that is raised by this purpose will be used to purchase sports equipment and camping equipment.

LIONS CHARTER NIGHT TO BE HELD JANUARY 20th.

With a large number of guests from the sponsoring West Edmonton Lions Club on hand for the occasion, as well as other distinguished guests Drayton Valley Lions Club will have their Charter Night in the Cardium Room the evening of January 20th. The local service club was organized in January, 1958. It now has a membership of over 75, and has undertaken a number of projects around town which have been brought to a successful conclusion.

The Club meets on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month. The meeting on the 20th will be Ladies Night and will be a social evening.

NEW 12-ROOM HIGH SCHOOL

TO BE BUILT.

A twelve room High School, Junior and Senior, will be erected in Drayton Valley this year according to a recent announcement by Stony Plain School Division officials. The school will be built in the general area south-east of the hospital. It will be built with auditorium and laboratory. It will also have a shop for the giving of shop instruction.

It is expected that Stony Plain School Division will erect the school under the supervision of their own foreman, hiring local help, as they have in the previous school they have built here since the oil boom started. Work will begin as soon as weather permits, and it is expected that the school will be ready for operation at the beginning of the fall term.

KEN MASON'S COLUMN:

The first test of public reaction to the government's five-year development plan and suspension of oil and gas dividends will take place in the central Alberta riding of Olds on Feb. 9.

Premier Manning has called a byelection for date to fill a vacancy created by the death in December of Fred J. Middelie, Social Credit M.L.A. who had represented Olds in the House since 1950. Nomination Day is Jan. 26.

The byelection could provide an indication of how the public will go to the polls if the expected general election is held later this year. Social Credit will naturally be campaigning on the strength of the government's five-year program. If nothing else, it will give the Opposition parties a practice run at fighting against such a potent political weapon.

At the time of writing, it appeared likely that all four major political parties would be contesting the byelection. The only doubtful is the C.P., but provincial leader Floyd Johnson said his party will have a candidate if at all possible.

Social Credit, Liberals and Conservatives planned to have nominating conventions within the near future. At the time of Mr. Middelie's death, Social Credit was the only party with a candidate in Olds. The local S.C. group had nominated Mr. Middelie for re-election.

Chances appear fairly good for Social Credit to retain the seat. Olds has been a Social stronghold for years. The only thing worrying the S.C. officials is the tendency among voters in a byelection to register any protest they have against the government by supporting an Opposition candidate. It's a safe thing to do in a byelection, because even if the Opposition man is elected it doesn't topple the government.

At the time of Mr. Middelie's death, there was some doubt whether the government would hold an early byelection, in view of the likelihood of a general election in the spring or summer. But the Election Act says that there must be a member elected in time for the next session of the Legislature.

The new members for Olds will have to be sworn in and take their seats after the House session opens. The opening this year has been set for February 5, a week or two earlier than usual. A similar situation existed in 1954 when W.J.C. Kirby, now provincial Tory leader, was elected in a byelection held while the House was in session, to fill a vacancy created by the death of Agriculture Minister David Ure.

RECESSION TALK echoed from one end of Canada to the other during the past year. Unemployment figures rose menacingly; federal and provincial governments introduced assorted pump-priming measures and winter works programs.

But if most of Canada was hit by recession, Alberta must have been an island of prosperity by comparison. This is borne out by preliminary reports on the province's economy, compiled by the provincial bureau of statistics.

Value of manufacturing in the province for the year was approaching $600,000,000—well above

last year's $762,000,000. There were about as many people employed as in 1957, although unemployment was higher because the labor force grew at a faster rate than job opportunities.

Retail trade was up an estimated 3.2 per cent at $1,245,000,000. Housing construction and the building industry in general reported major gains over 1957. While grain marketings were still down and grain farmers were feeling the pinch, increases in livestock earnings resulted in a major increase in overall farm income.

New industries establishing in the province, along with expansion of existing industries, helped to keep the picture bright. A major factor was expansion of the petrochemical and chemical industries.

According to Dan Istvanffy, provincial statistician, industrial activity created jobs, kept money in circulation and helped to cushion Alberta against economic recession which was felt in some other provinces.

The year ended with indications of a possible upsurge in the economy. Example: Retail sales to the end of October were up only 1.8 per cent. But for October alone they were up 8.7 per cent over the same month in 1957.

Alberta's department of Lands and Forests is putting new emphasis on public relations. It started over a year ago when Lands and Forests Minister Norman Willmore appointed a public relations officers who, among his other duties, edits a land, forest and wildlife magazine, which comes out every two months.

The department's biggest public relations undertaking to date will be a land, forest and wildlife conference slated for the Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton on January 22.

Discussions at the conference will centre around all the province's renewable resources. Speakers will include university professors, forest conservation workers, parks superintendents and fish and game officers from the department.

Mr. Willmore is hoping the two-day session will become an annual event, and through it he hopes to establish better contact between his department and the public.

A number of interesting displays will go along with the conference. The most spectacular of these will be the lands and forests department's helicopter, which is being dismantled and will be set up in the lobby of the auditorium. The helicopter paid for itself several times over during the forest fire season last year.

In addition to the new emphasis on public relations, the lands and forests department has been undergoing a general reorganization during the past year. Mr. Willmore has appointed a full-time game branch director, and commercial fisheries have been placed under a separate branch to administer program aimed at bolstering the province's fishing industry.

To head up an expanded provincial parks program the minister appointed R.P. Shaw to a newly created post of parks director.

"A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION"

UNKNOWN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC OF DRAYTON VALLEY, A MUCH HEATED DISCUSSION HAS BEEN CARRIED ON BY TWO OF EDMONTON'S LEADING DAIRIES.

ONE COMPANY ISISTS ON SEMI-WEEKLY DELIVERY OF MILK (four days per week) AND CHARGING THE STORE KEEPERS IN ACCORDANCE WHILE DEPRIVING OUR LOCAL TRUCKING COMPANY, (Jensen Bro. and five individual, operat-1 trucks) OF A GOOD DEAL OF REVENUE WHICH WOULD OTHERWISE BE SPENT (if available) IN THE TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY. THIS METHOD ALSO DIRECTLY COSTS THE CUSTOMER ONE CENT EXTRA PER QUART OF MILK. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE OTHER COMPANY HAS AGREED TO PREPAY ALL MILK CARTAGES (shipped daily through Jensen Bros. & Co.) THIS MEANS A GREATER AMOUNT OF SPENDING CAPITAL IS MADE AVAILABLE FOR USE IN DRAYTON VALLEY THROUGH THE TRUCKING REVENUES (otherwise deprived), PLUS A REDUCTION ON ONE CENT PER QUART OF MILK FOR THE CUSTOMER.

BY: Danita Boling.

At last, the women of Drayton Valley have been emancipated! We now have our own column in the D.V. News Advertiser, complete with bylines. The Editor suggested that we include such items or favorite recipes, which shows that the men (bless them) still hope to benefit from our chit chats. We'll go along with the Editor's idea when we run across recipes that offer the most for the least, but we won't miss our chance to let this man's world know that we have an intellectual side too.

Now that the Holiday Season is over and party's are at a premium, we are left with the weeks of bleak winter weather ahead and nothing to do but get the winter blues. This might be a good time to dig into all the nooks and corners, and clean, sort, and throw out, the many useless items you have tossed onto the shelves since the last time you cleaned house. It has been said that if you do not use a thing for six months then you don't need it and should throw it away or pass it on to someone who can and will use it. So if you haven't worn your diamond earrings or have an old mink coat that you haven't worn for six months, just send them over to me. It's the neighborly thing to do! I have a basement full of empty boxes I can pass on to my neighbors. Don't ask me why I save empty boxes; I just save them; they help fill up the empty spots about the place. Anyway, it is a good time of the year to do the groundwork for that big event "Spring Cleaning". Then when Spring comes into bloom and you can hardly wait to get at the main projects like wall and window washing, you won't have to waste any time on the smaller detail jobs. Let me know how it turns out...I intend to sleep till spring!

Just to please the Editor and our male admirers I will include a real quick recipe. Your late evening unexpected guests will really be impressed with your talents:

Sweet 'N Sour Cocktail Wieners.

Ingredients: One six ounce jar (2 cup) prepared mustard, one 10 ounce jar (1 cup) currant jelly and one pound (8 to 10) frankfurters, canned Vienna sausages or cocktail wieners.

Mix the mustard and jelly in a chafing dish or a double boiler. Slice the frankfurters or wieners, diagonally, into bite size. Add to the sauce and heat. This recipe will make eight servings.

How simple can a recipe be? It's good, too! A last thought before I depart:
"to eat is human, to digest, divine!"

luncheon on February 6th. Reservations for this dance may be made by contacting Kathy Shaw at 440.

The annual Oil Wives convention will be held in Regina, Sask. on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th of March. Jean Bosworth, President of Oil Wives Association of Drayton Valley, has consented to attend as representative from this club.

At the conclusion of all business, Mrs. Bosworth turned the meeting over to the Program Committee. Entertainment for the evening was BINGO with prizes being presented to the winner.

MRS KROMM PASSES AWAY.

On December 21st, Mrs. Hazel Mary Kromm, beloved wife of Riebold Kromm passed away. Born in Calgary, she lived at Turner Valley for eighteen years, moving to Drayton Valley two years ago. She was a member of the Drayton Valley United Church and president of the Violet Grove W.A.

Besides her husband she also leaves to mourn their loss three sons, Billy, Allen and Marle, one daughter, Sharon, and a brother W.P. Mockett, of Essex, Ontario.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend W.A. Sayers and the Reverend S.R. Hunt, in Gooder Brothers Funeral Chapel in Calgary, on December 24th.

CARD OF THANKS: I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to Doctor MacLus, the Matron, Nurses and Staff of Drayton Valley Hospital, for the care and many extra courtesies given to my wife during her long illness in the hospital, and also to the various groups and our many friends who visited her, and sent her flowers and cards.

Special thanks to Reverend and Mrs. Wright and to Mr. and Mrs. Bud Byram for their help when most needed.

Sincerely:
R. Kromm.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR INFANT.

Five month old Michael Douglas Schenkel, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Schenkel, of Drayton Valley passed away on December 20 in Drayton Valley.

Graveside funeral services in Drayton Valley Cemetery were conducted by the Reverend John Karlman, of Drayton Valley Lutheran Church.

Besides his parents young Michael left behind eight brothers and sisters, Linda, age 12, Johnny, age 10, Ernie age nine, Dannie, age 7, Randy age 5, Larry age 4, Bonnie age 3 and Rickie, age 16 months.

CHIEF CONSTABLE MILES TO CONDUCT COURSE.

By all appearances there should be some good League Hockey played this year, as there is a very good line-up of players. Winners in the first two games of the schedule which were played on Monday, Jan. 12 and Tuesday, Jan. 13, were Pan Am against Service and P.P.L. playing against Supply.

DRAYTON VALLEY HIGHLIGHTS.
BY: Edith Deby.

Mr and Mrs Gordon Bowman's infant daughter was christened Barbara Isabella in a baptismal service conducted by the Reverend Albion Wright in Drayton Valley United Church on December 23 following the ceremony Mr and Mrs Bowman entertained sixteen guests at dinner. Mr Bowman's mother, Mrs Bowman and Miss Marial Walters, of Calgary, were out of town guests.

At an executive meeting held in Mrs Charles Moore's home on Tuesday evening the W.I. planned for a busy year in 1959.

Attendance during the past year has been very good. Mrs Dion, Mrs Oscar and Mrs Gordon Brown all received perfect attendance spoons and several members just missed one meeting.

The regular monthly meeting will be held at Mrs Krause's home on Monday, January 19, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Ladies interested in the work of the Women's Institute are invited to attend.

Mr Tipper narrowly missed having a serious accident when a heater he was lighting at a battery blow up. He received first degree burns to his face and both hands. His recovery is satisfactory and he expects to be able to return to work soon. (next column)

CARNIVAL QUEEN

The climax of an evening crammed with fun and entertainment will be the crowning of one of the young ladies whose pictures appear above as Queen of Drayton Valley's Fourth Annual Winter Ice Carnival. The Ice Carnival will be held at the skating rink in Drayton Valley, Saturday, February 7th, 1959, commencing at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Choice for Queen will be determined, as it has been previously, by the number of votes cast, with each ticket representing one vote. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased from the girls, or from their sponsors. Winner in 1956 was Joy Ann Patterson; in 1957 Sophie Hotra was crowned Queen, and last year, in 1958, Sherry Scott was the winner. Who will our 1959 winner be? You can help determine that by casting your ballots for the girl of your choice.
